Raw Ingredients

Protein Plus's raw ingredients are crafted for flexibility and clean-label performance, ideal for brands developing custom plant-based products & many more.

Coconut Powder

Our coconut powder, made 100% of the mature fruit of coconut, comprises of a harmonious blend of essential nutrients, including protein, fiber, and fats.

Coconut Oil

Our coconut oil is chemical-free and 100% natural. It is non-chemically treated, making it suitable for many various applications.

Coconut Cream

Our coconut cream, which is a mixture of the paste and oil, is made from 100% pure coconut. A natural and versatile ingredient in its most natural form.

Completed Products

Protein Plus's completed products are convenient, ready-to-use solutions designed to meet the growing demand for dairy-free, plant-based alternatives without compromising on taste or texture.

Mayonnaise

Our egg-free mayonnaise delivers the same creamy, smooth texture as traditional mayo without the eggs. Available in a variety of bold, vegan-friendly flavours like Japanese-style, truffle, garlic, mala, and more.

Butter

Our butter is luscious, versatile, lactose-free butter, made with coconut oil. Ideal for spreading on toast, cooking as well as baking your favourite recipes.

Dulce De Leche

Our rich caramel sauce offers a creamy sweet indulgence, perfect for drizzling on desserts, spreading on toast, or enjoying straight from the jar.

Cream Cheese

Our cream cheese is creamy, smooth, and spreads easily. Suitable for use as a spread on bagels or toast, as a dip, or as an ingredient in both sweet and savory dishes.

Cheese Sauce

Our cheese sauce provides a similar creamy and savory experience without the use of any dairy ingredients. Can be used as a base for pasta sauces or as a rich, indulgent topping or dip for potatoes, chips and more.

Block Cheese

Our block cheese captures the savory and umami notes of regular cheese without dairy-based ingredients. Create clear cut slices for burgers, grate for toppings on pizzas, salad, or serve as a snack on its own.

We are your choice partner in ingredient supply for retail, food service and industry.
